

Terms of Reference
ADRIA Arbitrator Designations Committee (ADC)
October 2020

Overview & Purpose:

The ADR Institute of Alberta's (ADRIA) Arbitrator Designations Committee (ADC) is appointed by the ADRIA Board of Directors (the Board) to review membership applications for the national designations of Chartered Arbitrator or Qualified Arbitrator (C.Arb./Q.Arb.). The ADC functions as the Regional Chartered Arbitrator Assessment Committee (RCAAC) for Alberta as currently defined by the ADR Institute of Canada (ADRIC), recommending member applicants to the National Chartered Arbitrator Accreditation Committee (NCAAC) for C.Arb. and Q.Arb. designations. The Chair also plays a role in reviewing Chartered Med/Arb (C./Med/Arb) applications.

Committee Composition & Qualifications:

The ADC will be composed of four (4) Chartered Arbitrators (C.Arb.) including the Chair, all of whom must be ADRIA & ADRIC Full members in good standing. At a minimum, the ADC can function with three (3) qualified committee members.

Ideally, the Chair will have 2 years or more of ADC OR Board of Directors OR other related experience that demonstrate good leadership/management skills.

Expectations of Committee members:

ADC members must be prepared to commit at least 8 hours of their time, three times annually, to the review of member applications and assessments. ADC members must be able to make themselves available to independently review files, and to discuss the applicants with the Chair and/or ADRIA staff during the application review periods of March, July and November each year. For the most part, ADC members are not expected to travel, as application reviews are conducted on-line individually, and discussed by video/teleconferencing as required.

Committee and Chair responsibilities:

The ADC will be guided by the Principles, Criteria, Protocol, and Competencies for the Chartered Arbitrator and Qualified Arbitrator designations as set out by ADRIC, and further amplified by ADRIA guidelines. Individually and collectively, the ADC will ensure the complete confidentiality of all application reviews, and exclude themselves from any decisions in which they played an assessment role or may be perceived as having a conflict of interest.

The Chair is responsible to the ADRIA Board of Directors and will work closely with the Executive Director (ED) and assigned ADRIA staff in leading the work of the ADC by:

- Ensuring ADC members are aware of and operate within the practices and guidelines provided by ADRIC and ADRIA, and conduct themselves in an ethical and consistent manner;

- Ensuring that the ADC operates effectively and within timelines required for application review, including ensuring that members have the information and feedback they need;
- Clarifying ADC expectations, such as deadlines and expected documentation; and
- Supporting open dialogue among ADC members and assisting them in seeking consensus.

ADC recommendations regarding member applications will be conveyed by the Chair to the ED and/or assigned ADRIA staff for onward transmission to ADRIC and/or the applicants. The Chair or the ED will keep the Board apprised of the quality, quantity and status of member applications.

The Chair jointly reviews C.Med/Arb applications with the Chair of the Mediation Designation Committee (MDC), and might consult the ADC in this regard. If consensus cannot be reached, the file will be referred by the ED to a suitable dual-qualified member for decision (ideally a Board member).

In addition to the review of member applications thrice annually, and the preparation of application recommendations to ADRIC and/or the applicants, the ADC will also:

- be fully familiar with ADRIC & ADRIA Arbitrator designation guidelines;
- be fully familiar with the Alberta Arbitration Act;
- make observations and/or suggest changes to the guidelines;
- when requested, comment on proposed changes to the guidelines;
- review and endorse ADRIA's list of approved C.Arb. Assessors; and
- meet with the Board on Arbitrator designation issues as appropriate.

Decision Making:

The ADC shall make decisions by consensus wherever possible. Should consensus not be possible, decisions shall be made by a majority vote of committee members. Should there be a tie vote, the Chair shall decide the issue.

Compensation:

ADC members are not paid, but are reimbursed for any direct expenses and will earn CEE credits annually.

Committee Term Limits:

ADC members, including the Chair, are usually appointed for an initial three-year term. ADC members, including the Chair, may be re-appointed at the Board's discretion for additional terms of one, two or three years to provide for staggered terms and succession planning. Continuous service on the ADC, inclusive of time as Chair, will not usually exceed six years in total. ADC members whose term has fully expired are not usually considered for further ADC appointments until at least two years have elapsed.

Selection and Appointment:

Members of the ADC and the Chair will be appointed by the ADRIA Board of Directors. Applications & nominations for the ADC will be solicited from the ADRIA general membership when vacancies exist. The Chair and ED will review applications and recommend new members to the Board. Re-appointments of current ADC members will also be recommended jointly by the Chair and ED, and approved by the Board. In selecting a new Chair, the Board will consider the recommendations of the current Chair and ED. When required, nominations for the Chair will be solicited from the general membership, reviewed and appointed by the Board.

Communications:

The membership will kept apprised of ADC policies, practices, opportunities and appointments by means of the ADRIA website, brochures, newsletter and/or e-mail.

The Chair may raise and/or pursue designation issues with the Board President or the Board as a whole at any time, and may be asked to report, annually or as required.

ADRIA resources available to the Committee:

ADRIA staff will provide administrative support to prepare member applications for online review, promulgate ADRIA guidelines and application forms, interact with applicants to finalize their applications, prepare all required correspondence, convey ADC recommendations to applicants and/or ADRIC, maintain ADC files and records, track and pay ADC expenses (parking, conference calls, etc.), provide meeting space if required, and solicit ADC nominations from the general membership.

Budget requirements:

The ED will budget appropriately for cost of supporting the ADC in the annual business planning cycle and ongoing reviews.

TOR Approved by the ADRIA Board of Directors: September 27th, 2014
October 2020 revisions approved by the Board of Directors: November 2020