* Note on Equivalency:

Students applying for this program must have completed one or combination of courses totaling 40 credit hours, focusing on interest-based Mediation. This training must include 21 hours of practical role-plays and students must have successfully completed a Skills Evaluated Role-Play of at least 1.5 hours in duration to apply. There are no exceptions for experience in this category, unless you have Q.MED status. This is a mediation course, and students must have a solid understanding of the interest-based model and already know how to effectively role-play. Please include proof of the above with your application at time of registration or you will not be accepted.

MRU Graduates must complete ADRIA's Role-play Bridging Course to apply.

If you are unsure if your course(s) meets requirements, or would like information on ADRIA's bridging course please contact membership@adrAlberta.com to complete the formal equivalency process.
